

Rocks Inc. is a large mineral extraction conglomerate which is interested in expanding into the island nation of Congostan. The mining sector in Congostan is plagued by widespread corruption, human rights abuses, and environmental degradation. Rocks Inc. has been a longtime sponsor of Engineers Without Borders; however given the recent situation in Congostan, how should EWB proceed with our relationship to Rocks Inc.?

Rocks Inc. is a large mineral extraction conglomerate which is interested in expanding into the island nation of Congostan. The mining sector in Congostan is plagued by widespread corruption, human rights abuses, and environmental degradation. Rocks Inc. has been a longtime sponsor of Engineers Without Borders; however given the recent situation in Congostan, how should EWB proceed with our relationship to Rocks Inc.?

Rocks Inc. is a large mineral extraction conglomerate which is interested in expanding into the island nation of Congostan. The mining sector in Congostan is plagued by widespread corruption, human rights abuses, and environmental degradation. Rocks Inc. has been a longtime sponsor of Engineers Without Borders; however given the recent situation in Congostan, how should EWB proceed with our relationship to Rocks Inc.?

Rocks Inc. is a large mineral extraction conglomerate which is interested in expanding into the island nation of Congostan. The mining sector in Congostan is plagued by widespread corruption, human rights abuses, and environmental degradation. Rocks Inc. has been a longtime sponsor of Engineers Without Borders; however given the recent situation in Congostan, how should EWB proceed with our relationship to Rocks Inc.?

Rocks Inc. is a large mineral extraction conglomerate which is interested in expanding into the island nation of Congostan. The mining sector in Congostan is plagued by widespread corruption, human rights abuses, and environmental degradation. Rocks Inc. has been a longtime sponsor of Engineers Without Borders; however given the recent situation in Congostan, how should EWB proceed with our relationship to Rocks Inc.?